GGOF Portfolio Brief — Thursday, November 12, 2026

Covers Wed Nov 11 (US cash Treasuries were closed for Veterans Day; stocks traded) through the Thu Nov 12 Asia close and European morning. Source caveat: page fetches were blocked for several publishers (Yahoo, CNBC, Trading Economics, StockTitan and others) this run. Many items therefore rest on search-result snippets from named outlets. Single-snippet or aggregator items are marked (unverified). "QUIET" means nothing was found in the window, not that nothing happened. Today's 30-year auction and jobless claims had not printed when this was written.

1. Top of the stack

Nvidia's board is reported to be weighing Jensen Huang's removal, and AI beta is the portfolio's biggest exposure today. On Wednesday evening the WSJ reported that Nvidia's board met to consider ousting Huang after the New York Times reported a second affair, with Kimberly Powell, Nvidia's VP of healthcare. No decision was announced (Fortune, CNBC). NVDA had closed Wednesday at $173.73 (+2.9%). It fell about 8–9% after hours and was down about 6–8% premarket today. Bloomberg reports the board is working with an outside firm on possible successors, and analysts name CFO Colette Kress as a possible interim CEO (CNBC, Benzinga). Some analysts see a further ~20% downside if Huang goes. Nasdaq-100 futures were about −1% this morning (CNBC live).

The reversal reached Seoul. The Kospi closed −0.61% at 5,342.73, with options expiry adding to the swings. SK hynix fell 1.8% to ₩1,254,000 as the most Nvidia-exposed name. Samsung Electronics held at +0.97% to ₩208,000, cushioned by its smaller Nvidia HBM share (Bloomingbit, AjuPress). This follows Wednesday's chip melt-up: the SOX rose about 7.3% on CoreWeave's beat, its best four-day run since March 2020 (Nasdaq SOX; unverified). For holders, 000660, 005930, SMH, MAGS, ALGM, 6707 and 3445 now face a leadership event before the Nov 17 earnings print, not only the print itself.

Rates: today's 30-year auction tests a market already near 5%. The 10-year was about 4.99% this morning (Trading Economics), after Tuesday's hot CPI and a 10-year auction that cleared at 5.02% (CNBC). The $25B 30-year auction is today at 1pm ET; the previous high yield was 5.618% (Investing.com). Jobless claims print today (consensus about 194K) and October PPI on Fri Nov 13 (Investing.com). CME FedWatch still shows about 88–91% odds of a 25bp hike at the Dec 8–9 FOMC and 9–11% for 50bp (Yahoo SG). For the duration hedge, WNU6 has expired. The Dec Ultra Bond (UBZ6) first notice is about Mon Nov 30: we computed this from the CME rule, and the Mar contract's Feb 26 date on Barchart fits it.

BHF: the stock prices a real chance the deal breaks, with 24 days to the outside date. No amendment 8-K, extension or termination has been filed. BHF said in its Q3 release that state approvals (DE, NY, MA) will not come by the Dec 6 outside date, and that it is discussing an extension with no assurance (SEC). The stock was about $45.35 (+2.1%) on Nov 11, about $25 (35%) below the $70 cash price. On Nov 11 KBW kept a Hold rating with a $50 target, which is essentially a deal-break value (Google Finance; unverified). Reports say Delaware has questioned

Aquarian's funding and opened an examination, and that Talcott/Sixth Street remains interested if the deal fails (AdvisorHub; Capitol Forum detail unverified). Break fees are $226M payable by Aquarian and $143M by BHF. After Dec 6 either side can walk away.

DDL: Q3 came a week early and was solid, but SAMR is still the only thing that matters. Dingdong reported before the US open today. GMV was RMB8.31bn (+14.3%), revenue RMB7.38bn (+10.8%), GAAP net income RMB298m and gross margin 29.7% (PR Newswire). Profit gets an accounting boost from the pending Meituan sale. SAMR has still not ruled. Rivals have filed complaints, and the long-stop date is Feb 2027 (Mergermarket/PaRR).

CEC GY: JD.com settlement is due today but not yet confirmed, and the delisting looks like H1 2027. All closing conditions were met on Nov 3, and closing was targeted "by Nov 12" (TradingView/EQS, Inside Retail). We found no completion notice. A shareholder FAQ indicates delisting is likely in H1 2027, not immediately after closing (unverified, snippet). JD and Convergenta hold about 85.2%. Under German law a delisting offer must be in cash at no less than the 6-month VWAP, so minorities wait months, not weeks, for a second exit. That shifts the hold-or-sell decision toward selling near €4.60.

2. What matters, by group

Group 1 — Rails / shipping / financials

- BHF US — MATTERS. See §1.
- CEC GY — MATTERS (mechanics). See §1. FY results usually come in mid-December.
- ZIM US — QUIET. Nothing new. The revised Hapag-Lloyd/FIMI structure (still $35) needs a fresh Israeli application approved by all three boards. Israel's Finance Ministry opposes the deal, and one analyst sees no approval before Dec 31 (FreightWaves). No break fee is payable if Israel blocks it (Container Magazine). The outside date may extend automatically to June 2027 if Israeli approval is the only open condition (Calcalist, unverified). Q3: Wed Nov 18, pre-market, call 8:00 ET (Nasdaq).
- NSC / UNP — QUIET (negative tone). Nothing dated Nov 11–12. Sen. Baldwin renewed her opposition after the STB ordered UP to publish CEO Vena's speech video (Trains). Comments are due Nov 18, the UP/NS reply to CPKC's dismissal request Nov 19, and DOJ input by about Dec 3, expected to be neutral (Seeking Alpha; unverified). A final STB decision is not expected before May 28, 2027.
- AAUC CN — QUIET. Kurmuk first-pour coverage continued (QNC). Guidance is 25–35koz for 2026 and 240–270koz for 2027, and commercial production by end-2026 depends on November power and haul-fleet readiness (Northern Miner). The NCIB still awaits TSX acceptance.
- ALTI US — NOISE. Q3 detail: adjusted EPS −$0.14 against +$0.02 expected and about $250M of net wealth outflows. The $85M delayed-draw loan from Diameter has $28M drawn (Seeking Alpha). Nothing new since.

Group 2 — Luxury / consumer / Korea / autos / energy / alternatives

- 000660 KS / 005930 KS — MATTERS. See §1. The prior day's Kospi close was 5,375.36 (+2.60%; ad-hoc-news).
- 034730 SK Inc / 028260 Samsung C&T — QUIET. They move with their memory affiliates.
- 051910 LG Chem / 373220 LGES — QUIET, overhang dated. LG Chem's sale of about ₩2.5tn of LGES (6.54M shares, via a price-return swap) runs Nov 27–Dec 24 and takes its stake from 79.38% to 76.59%. LG Chem's net debt now exceeds ₩29tn (Seoul Economic Daily).
- ENI IM / REP SM / TTE FP — MATTERS via oil. Brent rebounded about 1–3% on Nov 11 to roughly $92.5–93.9 after Iran's Revolutionary Guards said two supertankers hit mines in Hormuz and Iran denied talks with Washington (OilPrice). Commerzbank says the mine strikes put a floor under Brent (FXStreet). Brent is still down about 17% in November. Qatar has reportedly taken an Iranian Hormuz proposal to the White House (unverified). No stock-specific news.
- Europe context / MSE FP. The Euro Stoxx 50 closed 6,393.39 (+1.04%) on Nov 11 and the Stoxx 600 at a record 663.05, led by Siemens Energy (+10.8%) (MLQ; unverified). This morning the DAX is up more than 1%, while European tech is down 1.3% on Nvidia (Euronews).
- MC FP / CDI FP — QUIET. LVMH closed at about €403.10 (+0.5%) (unverified). Correction to prior briefs: the €469.05 Dior figure is illustrative. The final price is fixed five business days before the December EGMs and moves with LVMH's share price. The Dior €6.05 interim dividend is due Dec 3 (unverified) (GlobeNewswire).
- GENT MK — QUIET, with a correction. The RM2.35 Genting Malaysia offer closing "Nov 24 / Dec 1" in prior briefs was the 2025 timetable. That offer closed Dec 1, 2025 at 73.13%, and Genting Bhd now holds about 73.8%, short of the 75% needed to delist. There is no live offer. Genting Bhd proposed a RM1.25bn rights issue in October (AsGam). Q3 is likely late November (assumed). GENS SP: no Q3 date found.
- PGHN SW — watch. Investors were due to vote this week on splitting the €6.6bn Global Value SICAV (a two-thirds majority is needed; effective about Nov 30 if approved). No result found (ad-hoc-news; unverified). BX / IPRV: QUIET.
- NPN SJ / PRX NA — QUIET. Tencent did not report Nov 12–13; one preview says Nov 18 (unverified, BigGo). Prosus interims are Nov 24 (TipRanks says confirmed; unverified).
- VOW GY / P911 GY / 8TRA GY — NOISE. VW's October China NEV sales rose about 347% y/y in a market down 27.3% (Ariva). The Traton block sale (to 75%+1) is still pending.
- EXO NA / RACE IM — QUIET. Exor's second buyback tranche has been running since Oct 26 (MFN).
- COTY / IPAR / ITP FP / PUIG SM — QUIET. Coty's strategic review is still due by year-end.
- MF FP Wendel — QUIET. The €2.55 dividend goes ex on Nov 17 or 18 (sources differ) and is paid Nov 19; Investor Day is Dec 2. BVI FP / INDUA SS / KDDI / NTT — QUIET.
- ALGM US / 6707 JP — QUIET (no news). As semis beta, they are exposed to the Nvidia headlines. Sanken holds about 32% of Allegro.
- PSH LN / PSUS US — QUIET. No November weekly NAV found; the last is $78.89 at Oct 31 (PSH).
- EULIF / CRML — QUIET. CRML was about $5.88 on Nov 9 (Fox Business; unverified). EULIF is delisting and the ADR conversion is still unconfirmed.

- Copper (QCQ6 expired) — NOISE. COMEX was about $6.21–6.27/lb, near a four-month low and well under the $6.89 record of Sep 9 (Macrotrends; unverified).

Group 3 — Small/mid-cap & special situations

- DDL US — MATTERS. See §1.
- SMH LN — MATTERS. See §1. The +7.3% SOX day on Nov 11 was led by Micron +11.9% and AMD +7.3% (Yahoo). Expect it to give back part of that today on Nvidia.
- GPH CN / GPH-WA — MATTERS (policy). China's pause on Announcement 58 now runs to Jan 10, 2027 (TechTimes). The US-specific graphite end-use pause (No. 72) still shows a Nov 27 expiry with no extension found (Global Times). Q3 filing is expected about Nov 13.
- CDZI US — event pending. MarketBeat estimates Q3 today, with a call on Nov 13 (consensus EPS −$0.14; MarketBeat). Not company-confirmed, and no release was found. The focus is funding the $403M Northern Pipeline, against June-30 working capital of only $1.6M (10-Q).
- Japan reporters tomorrow (Fri Nov 13). 7911 TOPPAN and 7912 DNP report H1 (kabutan, kabuyoho). 3445 RS Technologies reports Q3, per its IR calendar (RS Tec); H1 ordinary profit was 52% of its ¥17.2bn guidance. 6425 Universal Entertainment Q3 is expected about Nov 13 (Investing.com).
- SLV / SIL / VZLA — MATTERS (metals). Nov 11 prints disagree. Gold was steady near $4,034 per USAGOLD but at $3,982 (−1.25%) per Trading Economics. Silver was about $52.67 (+2.2%) per USAGOLD against about $51.6–51.8 elsewhere (USAGOLD). VZLA closed at C$4.61, near its 52-week low of C$4.03 (TMX). Panuco has been shut since January, with a restart targeted by end-2026.
- NAK US — QUIET, binary. The Pebble ruling is expected in "late 2026" (Pebble Watch). The stock is about $0.66, and Q3 is due about Nov 16–17.
- DIDIY — QUIET. Q3 is most likely Nov 26–27 (GuruFocus).
- BUKA IJ — QUIET. The 9M net loss was Rp881bn on investment losses, with revenue +19% (Bloomberg Technoz).
- LIO LN — NOISE (routine buyback filings). The GEL 3.25 dividend goes ex Dec 3 (ADVFN). IPX LN: QUIET; a notice of FY results is likely in mid-to-late November, with results around Dec 1. JUP LN: QUIET.
- EP059897 Pfd — UNRESOLVED. Searches again found nothing. One unconfirmed guess is the Cadiz 8.875% Series A depositary preferred (CDZIP), the only preferred in this group. The owner should confirm.

Group 4 — Futures / macro hedges

- US equities (Nov 11). S&P 500 7,619.38 (+1.3%), Nasdaq 25,466.19 (+1.6%), Nasdaq-100 28,374.25 (+2.28%), Dow 52,486.49 (+0.49%) (TheStreet). One AP copy shows a Nasdaq gain of +3.6%; ignore it. This morning: NQ about −1%, ES about −0.4%, Dow flat.
- Rates: see §1. Credit: the ICE BofA HY OAS was 3.34% on Nov 9, down from 3.48% on Nov 5 (FRED). HYG fell 0.43% on Nov 10. No IEF print was found.
- FTSE 100: closed 10,835.47 (+0.78%) on Nov 11 and is about +0.2% this morning near its record (Share Talk). UK Q3 GDP was +0.7% q/q, in line (Q2 revised to 0.5%) (CNBC).

- Uranium: trackers show about $92/lb; there was no official UxC print in the window (CarbonCredits).
- Week in context. Nov 5 brought the AI selloff (S&P −4.4%). On Nov 6, payrolls of +165K against 65K expected pushed yields up. Nov 9 saw an oil-relief rally (S&P +2.3%). On Nov 10, hot CPI and a weak 10-year auction drove the 10-year to about 5%. Nov 11 was a CoreWeave and chip melt-up, with the S&P +1.3% and Europe at a record. Today, Nvidia's leadership crisis hits tech futures, with the 30-year auction and claims still ahead. The market is whipsawing between AI-capex sentiment and a near-certain December hike.

Group 5 — US large-cap core

- MAGS — MATTERS (via NVDA). It closed $68.89 (+0.5%) and was about $68.01 after hours (Finviz). At equal weight NVDA is about 14% of the fund, so today's NVDA drop alone costs about 1%.
- CAT — MATTERS. It closed $601.61 (+2.9%) (Yahoo), rebounding after Nov 10's drop. The FT-sourced report of Anthropic taking over OnePWR's 1.7GW gas-generator order (about $3.4B with installation) is now widely reported (Yahoo). Caterpillar has not confirmed it. The dividend is paid Nov 19.
- COST — MATTERS (mechanics). It closed $1,087.61 (+2.0%), near its 52-week high of $1,096.50 (StockAnalysis). The 8-K confirms the $30 special (record Nov 24, paid Dec 4) and a new $4B buyback running to Nov 2030 (SEC). Mizuho raised its target to $1,100 (TipRanks). Director Helena Foulkes resigned after being elected Rhode Island governor.
- IBKR — NOISE (moderate). It rose 6.3% to about $82.49 with no company catalyst; the move is credited to market-wide activity (GuruFocus).
- PLTR — NOISE. It closed $172.40 (+2.1%). A 24/7 Wall St "down 9% at noon" item conflicts with the close; ignore it. It is exposed to today's AI wobble.
- LLY — QUIET. Ex-dividend $1.73 tomorrow (Nov 13). BofA raised its target to $1,557 ahead of the Dec 7 R&D Day (TheStreet). CMS Medicare negotiated prices (Trulicity, Verzenio) are due by Nov 30.
- WMT — QUIET. It closed $125.67. BofA raised its target to $139 and Baird to $140 (GuruFocus). FQ3 is Nov 19, pre-market, with options implying about ±6.4%. Nothing new on the Flipkart probe.
- TPR — QUIET. It closed about $133.34 (−1.7%). A Form 144 insider-sale notice was filed (Investing.com).

3. Probably noise

- "Nasdaq +3.6%" (one AP/WTOP copy). It conflicts with +1.6% elsewhere and looks like a data error.
- "PLTR down 9% at noon" (24/7 Wall St). It conflicts with the +2.1% close.
- Genting Malaysia offer "closing Nov 24 / Dec 1". That was the 2025 timetable; there is no live offer (corrects prior briefs).

- Dior "€469.05 offer". That is an illustrative figure, not a fixed price; the final price is set before the December EGMs.
- IBKR +6.3%. A beta and activity move with no news.
- VW China NEV "+347%". It is off a tiny base, in a market down 27%.
- Target hikes on WMT, LLY and COST. These are positioning ahead of known events.
- Routine buyback filings (LVMH, Prosus, Lion Finance, Exor, Ferrari).

Decisions to consider:

1. AI beta before Nov 17: the Nvidia risk is now a leadership event that could land any day, not just an earnings print. Review sizing in SK hynix (most exposed), Samsung, SMH, MAGS, ALGM and Sanken.
2. BHF: with a 35% spread, KBW at $50 and 24 days to Dec 6, decide whether to hold for an extension or cut ahead of a possible walk-away.
3. CEC: if the delisting slips to H1 2027, consider exiting near €4.60 now instead of waiting.
4. Duration hedge: confirm the expired WNU6 was rolled. UBZ6 first notice is about Nov 30, and today's 30-year auction is the stress test.
5. COST: adjust options and hedges for the $30 special dividend (record Nov 24).
6. LGES: LG Chem's sell-down from Nov 27 is a dated supply overhang.

7. Futures housekeeping: the copper and uranium contracts have expired, and YBYU6 is unresolved.

5. Follow-up questions to investigate

1. NVDA: Does the board act before Nov 17? Who would be interim CEO (Kress?), and would a change hit hyperscaler or HBM order momentum or only the multiple? How did SK hynix ADR/GDR proxies trade in Europe today?
2. Rates: How did the 30-year auction tail and the indirect share compare with the weak 10-year, and does Friday's PPI firm up the case for 50bp?
3. BHF: Is an extension 8-K filed before Dec 6? What is the Delaware examination's scope, and is Talcott a credible fallback bid at what price?
4. CEC: Is completion confirmed today, and what does Ceconomy's Nov 11 statement (truncated in sources) say about delisting timing?
5. DDL: Does management give any SAMR timing on the Q3 call, and how wide is the deal spread now?
6. GPH / graphite: Is the US-specific No. 72 pause extended before Nov 27?
7. Partners Group: What was the result of the SICAV split vote, and does the 2.5% redemption cap bind?
8. CDZI: Did Q3 come out today, and is there news on Northern Pipeline funding?
9. Japan Nov 13 reporters: do TOPPAN, DNP and RS Tech change guidance, and does RS Tech mention semis demand given the Nvidia headlines?
10. Watchlist hygiene: What are YBYU6 and EP059897 (is EP059897 CDZIP)? Remove the CRML option, update the AAUC, EULIF and GENT labels, and roll the expired futures.
